Where can you go in Malaysia if you want to get the world at your doorstep?

The Bukit Tinggi Resort, which is 10 km off the East-West Karak Highway, and a mere 60 km from Kuala Lumpur, captures the essence of the different cultures of the world in a single unique destination.

The resort covers 16,000 acres of rugged hills and mountains crowned with lush tropical rainforests. Tucked away high up in the mountains, Bukit Tinggi Resort is currently managed by Berjaya Hotels & Resorts. At 2,700 - 3,500 feet above sea level, the air is cool, fresh and rejuvenating.

COLMAR TROPICALE

Inspired by the original collection of buildings from an authentic northeastern Colmar Village in Alsace, France, dating back to the 16th century, Colmar Tropicale is a picture postcard come alive at your doorstep.

Surrounded by lush tropical forest land, this French-themed resort has many theme shops, or should one wish to take a breather from participating in the various activities. The drawbridge reminiscent of ancient castles, clock tower with an original cuckoo bird clock, and the viewing tower complements the ambience. Experience a French landscaped courtyard and monumental towers as lookout points to the alluring Colmar Village.

Wine and dine, visit quaint little gift shops or simply enjoy the pleasing atmosphere of the village’s town square. There are abundant choices of dining outlets serving various specialties. Some of the major outlets include:

- La Cigogne – authentic French dining where you can sample excellent foie gras and choucroute, an Alsatian speciality;
- Les Elsson Coffee House – enjoy an array of tantalising delights and enticing local scrumptious dishes.
